Case No. C09-00929

STIPULATION AND [PROPOSED]
 ORDER TO REMAND SONOMA
 COUNTY SUPERIOR COURT CASE NO.
 SCV 242685 TO STATE COURT

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

1. On or about June 17, 2008 GENERAL ELECTRIC COMPANY, GE CONSUMER & INDUSTRIAL PRODUCTS DIVISION (“General Electric”) filed a complaint in the Superior Court of the State of California for the County of Sonoma entitled General Electric Company GE Consumer and Industrial Products Division v. Menlo Oaks Corporation, et al., Case No. 242685 (the “General Electric Action”). IndyMac Bank, F.S.B. (“IndyMac”) was named as a defendant in the General Electric Action.

2. On or about July 11, 2008 IndyMac was closed by the Office of Thrift Supervision and the FEDERAL DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORPORATION as Receiver for INDYMAC BANK F.S.B. (the “FDIC”) was appointed as receiver for IndyMac. The FDIC accepted its appointment as receiver of IndyMac on July 11, 2008. Pursuant to 12 U.S.C. Section 1821(c)(2)(A)(i), the FDIC assumed all rights, titles,

1 powers, privileges, and operations of IndyMac, stands in the shoes of IndyMac to respond to all claims of
2 liability against IndyMac, and thus stands in the shoes of IndyMac as defendant for purposes of responding
3 to General Electric's claims of liability.

4 3. On February 18, 2009, in order to protect its interests, the FDIC substituted itself in the place
5 of IndyMac as a defendant in the General Electric Action.

6 4. On or about March 9, 2009 the FDIC removed the General Electric Action from the Superior
7 Court of the State of California for the County of Sonoma to the United States District Court for the 8 Northern District of California, pursuant to 12 U.S.C. Section 1819(b)(2) and 28 U.S.C. Sections 1441(b), 9 1446(a) and 1446(d).

10 STIPULATION

11 5. General Electric has resolved its claims against defendant Menlo Oaks Corporation as alleged 12 in the General Electric Action.

13 6. General Electric seeks to dismiss the FDIC as a defendant in the General Electric Action.

14 7. General Electric seeks to have the Superior Court of the State of California for the County
15 of Sonoma retain jurisdiction over the General Electric action for purposes of enforcing General Electric's
16 settlement with defendant Menlo Oaks Corporation.

17 8. Accordingly, the FDIC and General Electric stipulate to the remand of the General Electric
18 Action to the Superior Court of the State of California for the County of Sonoma to allow General Electric
19 to dismiss the FDIC from the General Electric Action.

20 9. The FDIC and General Electric further stipulate that upon remand of the General Electric
21 Action to the Superior Court of the State of California for the County of Sonoma, General Electric shall 22 dismiss the FDIC from the General Electric Action with prejudice.

23 10. The FDIC and General Electric further stipulate that each party shall bear its own attorneys'
24 fees and costs relating to the General Electric Action.
